

Strategy Overview – Second Quarter 2021

Small Cap Core Strategy

Investment Philosophy

- We believe an economic return framework is the most effective tool for measuring true corporate performance and valuing companies
- The Life Cycle concept is an important tool for identifying the correct path of analysis and managing portfolio risk
- Wealth creation is contingent upon management applying capital allocation disciplines appropriate to a company's position across the corporate Life Cycle
- We seek to invest in what we believe to be the best allocators of capital at a discount to intrinsic value

Portfolio Managers

Christopher Faber
Jeffrey Madden

Investment Approach

- Follows a bottom-up, fundamental approach
- Considered core, as it will hold stocks across the entire style spectrum
- Managed with a team approach
  - The portfolio managers are involved in idea generation, fundamental stock analysis, and portfolio assessment
  - They draw upon the vast amount of analysis performed by our U.S. Equity Research team
- Seeks to provide capital preservation in down markets
- Under normal circumstances, the Small Cap Core Strategy (the "Strategy") invests at least 80% of its assets in equity securities of companies with small market capitalizations (less than or equal to the largest market capitalization of any company in the Russell 2000 index at the time of purchase)

Performance for periods of greater than one year is annualized. Past performance is not indicative of future results, and there is a risk of loss of all or part of your investment. Performance is net of the RMB Asset Management's management fee charged to client accounts and transaction costs. Please refer to the following page for important disclosure information. Information above is based on a representative account as of June 30, 2021 and is subject to change. Actual client holdings may vary.

While "high-quality" has no single, strict industry definition, we define high-quality stocks as those that we believe offer more reliability and less risk based on a set of clearly defined fundamental criteria including hard criteria (e.g., balance sheet stability, operating efficiency, enterprise life cycle) and soft criteria (e.g., management credibility). We define well-managed companies as those that intentionally grow assets when their economic return on capital is above the cost of capital, are willing to shrink assets when economic return is below the cost of capital, and actively seek to improve economic return when it is approximately equal to the cost of capital.

Fees | The standard management fee is 1% of assets annually, which is also our highest applicable fee. Actual investment advisory fees incurred by clients may vary. Composite performance is presented on a gross-of-fees and net-of-fees basis and includes the reinvestment of all income. For periods prior to 2018, net returns are computed by subtracting the highest applicable fee (1% on an annual basis, or 0.083% monthly) on a monthly basis from the gross composite monthly return, and the resulting monthly net figures are compounded to calculate the annual net return. Beginning in 2018, net returns are reduced by actual management fees and transactions costs incurred. The annual composite dispersion is an asset-weighted standard deviation calculated for the accounts in the Composite the entire year. Prior to 2018, internal dispersion was calculated using the equal weighted standard deviation for the accounts in the Composite the entire year. Risk measures presented are calculated using gross-of-fees performance. Policies for valuing investments, calculating performance, and preparing GIPS Reports are available upon request.

Minimum Value Threshold | The account minimum in the Small Cap Core product is currently $2 million. Prior to January 1, 2015, the composite excluded portfolios under $5 million.

Comparison with Market Indices | RMB compares its Composite returns to a variety of market indices. These indices represent unmanaged portfolios whose characteristics differ from the Composite portfolios; however, they tend to represent the investment environment existing during the time period shown. The returns of the indices do not include any transaction costs, management fees, or other costs. Benchmark returns presented are not covered by the report of independent verifiers. The benchmark for the Small Cap Core composite is the Russell 2000 Index, which for comparison purposes is fully invested and includes the reinvestment of income. The Russell 2000 is a subset of the Russell 3000 Index, representing about 8% of the total market capitalization of that index. It includes approximately 2000 of the smallest securities based on a combination of their market cap and current index membership. The Russell 2000 index is an unmanaged index that is designed to measure the small cap segment of the U.S. equity universe. The index does not reflect investment management fees, brokerage commissions, or other expenses associated with investing in equity securities. You cannot invest directly in an index.
